ONE bet was recorded at the Stock Exchange yesterday on the international polo matches, the odds being two and a half to one on the English team. There was a rush of brokers to participate in the bet, which was covered quickly. The offer was made by several Englishmen abroad who were willing to wager $2,500 against $1,000 that their team would win. Monday an offer of $10,000 to $7,500 on the English team found no takers in the financial district.

CHICAGO DOGS REAP HONORS AT MINEOLA

In delightful weather the eleventh annual bench show of the Ladies Kennel Association of America opened yesterday on the Fair Grounds at Mineola, to continue over to-day. The show was chiefly remarkable for the splendid all-round remarkable for the splendid all-round entry sent from Chicago, and many of these dogs were of the greatest merit and also international winners. The Vickery Kennels, owned by Messrs. Crawford and Perrin, sent eighteen entries, and these, under the management of the famous English expert Stanley Lomas, won a large number of prizes. Among these were the Airedales Prince of York, Tintern Royalist and Vicery Soubrette, the Amer-won from Ringlet, from Mr. Thompson's Yorkshire pack.

The Sealyham terriers created a great deal of interest. Fuller Chenery won with The Varmint, and then came that good dog and shower Mrs. Samuel Willets's Champion Star. Mr. Nichols made Hamilton Hadden's Jean the best. Her front is indifferent, although she is a strong and useful bitch. August Belmont's Queen Sexta, second, was bred by Mary, Duchess of Hamilton.

smart, scored in bitches. The curly poodles were of extra quality. Mrs. Tyler Morse's Champion Mile.

Topple is remarkable in her appearance. The Red Brook Kennels, as usual, had a superb entry and won many prizes. A. Albright, Jr., came out and won splendidly in West Highland white terriers with Champion Baughfeil Talisker, looking very well. Mrs. Clifford B. Harmon put down Lady Evelyn of Greenwich, one of NEVER feeling better in my Devereux Milburn, the back of the big four, when asked how he felt at the Meadow Brook polo field yesterday. Alarming reports had been spread of his condition after the spill he received in a practice game on Saturday. Milburn was smiling nearly all the time as he watched the English practice from the clubhouse and did not appear nearly so much worried as Capt. Whitney, who watched every move of the game from the roof of the clubhouse. Milburn stated that he would surely take part in the American practice to-day.

St. Julien was found to be the shorter in back and apparently denser in coat, and he won amid excitement among the onlookers.

As usual there was intense interest in the buildog awards. Every one was only the tiptoe of expectation as to what Mr. Reeves, the English judge, would do. CURTIS FORFEITS EASY GAME.

Also Forced to Cancel Erasmus Date for Disobeying Faculty.

The athletic committee of Curtis has forfeited last Saturday's victory over Mor-ris to Morris and has cancelled to-day's game with Erasmus because two players, Daly and Coffenberg, were in the of Saturday's game against the express orders of the committee. These two players were made ineligible last week by their failure to pass thirteen periods of work on the third report and were de-clared so by the committee despite the protests of the team.

The team thought that the ineligibility ought not to be enforced until this week, so it decided to take matters in its own hands and play in Saturday's game, members of the committee decided only fair thing to do was to forfeit game to Morris despite the fact that Cur-tis would undoubtedly have won without both of these players.

So Does Freake, but Invading Regulars Sweep Them to Defeat.

Hurlingham challengers for the international polo cup had another outing at Meadow Brook yesterday, when, though opposed by the strongest team they have met yet, they came out victorious by a score of 13 goals to 4. The Englishmen played right up to their handicaps, and if they had allowed the opposing team the eight and a half goals which the respective ratings called for, still would have won the game.

The contest showed that in at least one particular the visitors are well equipped, in case of accident or iliness. Lord Wodehouse, who arrived only on Saturday, made his appearance for the first time as back for the All Star team, which had another Englishman, F. M. 'Yale Faculty to Blame'--Sanford

NEW BRUNSWICK, June 3. Foster Sanford and Bob Loree, former Yale football stars, were cheered five minutes by the Rutgers undergraduate body at a football mass meeting held here last night when it was announced that both will assist in the coaching of the Rutgers team next fall. Howard Gargan of New York city will remain as head coach.

Sanford made a powerful speech to the students. In it he criticised the Yale faculty and blamed their "fancy coaching" for Yale's recent slump in football. "When the Yale faculty," he said, "thought best to curb shouting tactics of their coaches and to have the daily practice on what they called a quiet and systematic basis then it was that the Yale team went to pieces. They have taken the man out of football at Yale."
